CHAPTER 5.

AN ACT fixing the terms of court in the Fourth judicial circuit, and providing for the continuation and adjournment of such terms.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The general terms of the circuit court for the Fourth judicial circuit, shall be held each year as follows: In the county of Sheboygan on the second Monday in April and the third Monday in September. In the county of Manitowoc, on Tuesday after the second Monday in January, and Tuesday after the first Monday in June. In the county of Kewaunee, on the second Monday in May and the third Monday in October. In the county of Fond du Lac, on Tuesday after the third Monday in February, Tuesday after the first Monday in March, Tuesday after the first General terms of circuit court in fourth circuit.

Monday in July, and Tuesday after the second Monday in November; provided, no jury shall be summoned for the terms in February and July unless specially ordered.

Fond du Lac, Sheboygan and Manitowoc terms are special terms for whole circuit.

SECTION 2. Every term in the counties of Fond du Lac, Sheboygan and Manitowoc, shall be a special term for the whole judicial circuit, at which any and all business may be done arising or pending in any county in said circuit, which might be done at a general term for the county in which such business arises or is pending, except the trial of issues of fact by a jury.

Such terms shall be a continuation of all terms in the circuit not finally adjourned.

SECTION 3. The terms specified in section 2 shall be a continuation of all terms in the circuit which are not finally adjourned, and the court at the terms mentioned in section 2, shall have the same jurisdiction as to all judgments, orders or proceedings made or entered in any county which it would have if holding the term in the county at which such judgment, order or proceeding was made or taken, including the power to vacate, correct or otherwise change the same in the mode provided by law.

Circuit court shall be always open.

SECTION 4. The circuit court shall always be open for the transaction of all business in each of the counties in said circuit, from the beginning of one term until the beginning of the next term in the same county, and an order or direction for the adjournment of any term from day to day or to a specified day, and an entry thereof shall not be necessary to the validity of any judgment, sentence, order or proceeding therein, but when no judge shall attend to hold court on the first day or any subsequent day thereof, the term shall stand adjourned from day to day until a judge authorized to hold the same shall attend.

Term to continue until expressly adjourned.

SECTION 5. No term of court in said circuit shall be at an end until an express order for final adjournment is made and entered, and one term may be adjourned beyond the beginning of the next term in the same county.

SECTION 6. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 16, 1891.
