

it was entitled by law to recover thereunder; and in case the term of said bond three years shall have expired upon any such bond now existing, upon which no action has been commenced in court, such action must be commenced within ninety days from the passage and publication of this act.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved April 19, 1893.

No. 729, A.]

[Published May 2, 1893.

CHAPTER 269.

AN ACT to authorize the building of a wagon bridge across Fox river, in the city of Appleton.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

City of Appleton authorized to build wagon bridge.

SECTION 1. The city of Appleton is hereby authorized to build and maintain a wagon bridge over and across Fox river, from any point on the north bank of said river on section thirty-four, township twenty-one north, of range seventeen east, in the city of Appleton, and for that purpose may erect piers, embankments and approaches, and do all things necessary for the proper construction and maintenance of such bridge; provided, that such bridge shall be furnished with a suitable draw for steamboats and other craft navigating Fox river, to enable such water craft safely to pass through such draw; and also provided, said bridge shall not unnecessarily impair the free navigation of such river; and also such bridge shall be constructed and maintained subject to the approval of the United States government engineer, in charge of the improvement of Fox river.

How constructed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved April 19, 1893.