

No. 83, S.]

[Published March 9, 1895.]

CHAPTER 20.

AN ACT to amend section 14, of chapter 1, of the laws of 1887, entitled "An act to revise, consolidate and amend chapter 43, of the private and local laws of 1869, entitled, an act to incorporate the Wisconsin Odd Fellows Mutual Life Insurance Company."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14, of chapter 1 of the laws of 1887, is hereby amended by striking out all of said section after the word, "provided" where it appears in said section, and inserting in lieu thereof, the following: That any member may, for the purpose of securing the payment of a debt or advances made or to be made, assign his or her certificate of membership, or any interest therein, or direct in the manner aforesaid, the amount payable thereon, to be paid to a person other than such beneficiary or payee, or his or her heirs or Odd Fellows' lodge, file with the secretary of said company, an assignment, in writing, duly signed by the assured, in the presence of two attesting witnesses, directing the amount to be paid therein, to the person, his or her heirs or assigns, or to an Odd Fellows' lodge, to secure any indebtedness for money loaned, advanced or to be advanced, in which said cases, the amount stated shall be paid, within the time stated as aforesaid, to the payee named in said assignment, his or her heirs or assigns, or the Odd Fellows' lodge; and no such person so insured as aforesaid, shall, while any part of such indebtedness, or sums advanced remains unpaid, dispose of such certificate or any amount that may become due or payable therein, or thereby, or of any interest therein, by his or her last will or testament, or other-

Odd Fellows
mutual insurance law amended.

wise, nor shall any subsequent assignment thereof be filed by the secretary of said company, until the previous assignment or assignments shall be released by the person, persons, or lodge, in writing, whose signature shall be attested by two subscribing witnesses, who can write, and such release shall thereupon be filed and recorded by the secretary of said company; provided, further, that no money shall be paid to any assignor, except as hereinbefore provided, who has not an insurable interest in the life of the person so insured; and said section where so amended shall read as follows: Section 14. Within ninety days after the receipt by the secretary of due proofs of the death of any member, whose certificate of membership was at the time of his or her death, unforfeited and in full force and effect, there shall be paid to the beneficiary or payee named in such certificate, or, in case of the death of such beneficiary or payee, to the widow or late husband, child or children, mother, sister or sisters, father, brother or brothers, as the case may be, of such deceased member, and in the order named the amount named in said certificate for which said deceased member was insured; provided, that any member may, for the purpose of securing the payment of a debt or advances made or to be made, assign his or her certificate of membership, or any interest therein, or direct, in the manner aforesaid, the amount payable thereon, to be paid to a person other than such beneficiary or payee, or his or her heirs, file with the secretary of the said company, an assignment, in writing, duly signed by the assured, in the presence of two attesting witnesses, directing the amount to be paid therein, to the person, his or her heirs or assigns, or to an Odd Fellows' lodge, to secure an indebtedness for money loaned, advanced or to be advanced, in which said cases, the amount stated shall be paid (within the time stated as aforesaid), to the payee named in said assignment, his or her heirs or assigns, or the Odd Fellows' lodge; and no such person so insured as aforesaid shall, while any part of such indebtedness, or sums advanced remains unpaid, dispose of such certificate or any amount that may become due or payable therein, or thereby, or of any interest therein, by his or her last will or testament, or otherwise, nor shall any subsequent assignment thereof be filed by the secretary of said company, until the previous assignment or assignments shall be released by the person, persons, or lodge in writing, whose signature shall be attested by two subscribing witnesses, who can write, and such release shall thereupon be filed and recorded by the secretary of said company; provided, further, that no money shall be paid to any assignee, except as hereinbefore provided, who has not an insurable interest in the life of the person so insured.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 7, 1895.

No. 80, S.]

[Published March 9, 1895.

CHAPTER 21.

AN ACT to authorize the trustees of cemetery associations to contract with lot owners for the care and proper maintenance of lots and monuments.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The trustees of cemetery associations are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into contracts with individuals owning or interested in a lot or lots in cemeteries or public burial places for the care and preservation of said lot or lots and their appurtenances, under such terms and for such com-

Care of lots by cemetery associations.