state agricultural society.

SECTION 3. Section 1, of chapter 249, of the laws of 1891, is hereby amended: Strike out the words "two hundred" where they occur in the eighteenth line of the same section, and insert in lieu thereof the words "two hundred and fifty," and by striking out the word "seven" where it occurs in the tenth line of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the word "six," and by striking out the word "ten" where it occurs in line three and inserting the word "seven," and by striking out the words "the same to embrace the reports of the county and other agricultural societies" where they occur in lines five and six of said section, and by adding the words "shall contain" after the last word "and" in the said sixth line of said section, and by inserting after the word "society" where it occurs in line five, the words "all of which shall be bound in cloth," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 1. And further there shall be printed annually and upon the approval and order of the commissioners of public printing, seven thousand copies of the transactions of the Wisconsin state agricultural society, all of which shall be bound in cloth, and shall contain such matters pertaining to the agricultural industries of the state as shall be deemed important; provided, the whole number of printed pages shall not exceed four hundred. Seven thousand copies of the transactions of the Wisconsin state horticultural society, four thousand of which shall be bound in cloth, the same to embrace such abstracts of reports of county and other horticultural societies and such matters pertaining to the horticultural interest of the state as shall be deemed important; provided, that the whole number of printed pages shall not exceed two hundred and fifty. Eight thousand copies of the transactions of the state dairyman's association, the same to embrace such other matters pertaining to the dairy interest of the state as shall be deemed essential; provided, that the whole number of printed pages shall not exceed two hundred. Fifteen thousand copies of the report of the agricultural experiment station of the state university; provided, that the whole number of printed pages shall not exceed three hundred and fifty. Except as otherwise provided, two thousand copies of each of said reports to be bound separately in cloth, all others singly, in paper.

SECTION 4. The printing commissioners are authorized and empowered to secure the printing of half tone and other cuts in the university bulletins and reports, and such other documents as they may deem proper; if the printing of the same is not provided for in the contract with the state printer the printing commissioners are authorized to fix the price for such printing at the lowest current rates. The printing commissioners are also authorized and empowered to have made a reasonable number of cuts for illustrating the university bulletins which may be printed by authority of law.

SECTION 5. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with or contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 340.

AN ACT relating to circuit courts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Circuit judge may call in another judge—when.

SECTION 1. Whenever the causes at issue on the calendar at any term of a circuit court for any county in this state shall exceed one hundred in number, the judge holding such court may enter an order that some other circuit judge, naming him, may be called in to aid in the trial of causes; provided, however, that no judge shall be so named, till such judge shall have consented to attend the court of the judge calling him.

Both judges may hold court at the same time.

SECTION 2. Whenever any circuit judge shall have been called to attend at any term of court outside of his circuit, as provided in section 1, of this act, or whenever he shall attend a term of court outside of his circuit, under any law of this state, both judges may hold court at the same time in the same county and exercise all the powers of presiding judge at the term, and they may try cases separately at
