

No. 92, S.]

[Published March 27, 1897.

CHAPTER 116.

AN ACT to amend section 2483, of the revised statutes of 1878, relating to the salary of the judge of the county court of Milwaukee county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows.

Regarding the salary of the county judge of Milwaukee county.

SECTION 1. Section 2483, of the revised statutes of Wisconsin of 1878, as amended by section 3, chapter 183, of the laws of 1880, chapter 152, of the laws of 1881, and chapter 176, of the laws of 1889, is hereby amended by striking out the following: "Except that he may receive the rates allowed by law for certified copies of records or papers in his office and for certified copies of records and papers on appeal in probate matters," where said language occurs in said section, after the words "services rendered by him," and by inserting after said words "services rendered by him," the following: "all rates allowed by law for certified copies of records or papers in his office and for certified copies of records and papers on appeal in probate matters, shall be charged and collected by him, and he shall keep an accurate account thereof in a suitable account book to be provided by the county of Milwaukee. On the first day of each month he shall pay said moneys so received over to the county treasurer of Milwaukee county, who shall issue to said judge his receipt therefor, which shall be kept on file in the office of said county judge," so that when amended said section shall read as follows: Section 2483. The county judge of Milwaukee county shall receive a salary of five thousand dollars, to be paid quarterly out of the treasury of said county, which shall be in full compensation for all official services rendered by Salary to be $5,000 annually.

him; all rates allowed by law for certified copies of records or papers in his office and for certified copies of records and papers on appeal in probate matters, shall be charged and collected by him, and he shall keep an accurate account thereof in a suitable account book to be provided by the county of Milwaukee. On the first day of each month he shall pay said moneys so received over to the county treasurer of Milwaukee county, who shall issue to said judge his receipt therefor, which shall be kept on file in the office of said county judge.

SECTION 2. This act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 26, 1897.

No. 325, A.]

[Published March 29, 1897.

CHAPTER 117.

AN ACT relating to attachments in justice courts and amendatory of section 3710, revised statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3710, of the revised statutes of this state is hereby amended so as to read as follows: When property shall be seized on attachment, which is likely to perish or depreciate in value before the probable end of the action, or the keeping of which would be attended with much loss or expense, the justice may order the same to be sold by the officer, in the same manner and upon the same notice as goods are required to be sold on an execution;

Attached perishable property may be sold.