The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

License required to be taken out by peddlers;
rates, etc.

SECTION 1. Section 1570, of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter 100, of the laws of 1881, chapter 218, of the laws of 1882, chapter 510, of the laws of 1889, and chapter 81, of the laws of 1895, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1570. No person shall be allowed to travel from town to town, or from house to house, or from place to place, in any town within this state, (the word "town" as used in this section shall include cities and villages) for the purpose of selling or exposing for sale, barter or exchange, at retail or to consumers, any goods, wares, merchandise, notions or other articles of trade whatsoever, whether by sample or otherwise, and whether said goods, wares, merchandise, notions or other articles of trade whatsoever, are delivered at time of sale, or to be delivered at some future day, unless he shall have obtained a license as a peddler as herein provided; but this chapter shall not prevent any manufacturer, mechanic, nurseryman or farmer from selling his work or production by himself or employe; provided, that such manufacturer or mechanic shall have actually manufactured the goods, and such nurseryman shall have actually raised the products so sold or offered for sale, or shall have owned and been in possession of the same for not less than three months next prior to said sale or offering for sale; or to prevent any patent right dealer from selling his own invention; or to prevent any person from selling, or offering to sell at wholesale or to dealers only, any goods, wares, or merchandise whatsoever; or to prevent any fish peddlers from selling fish, or train boys from selling to persons traveling on railroad trains; or to prevent any person who is blind, or deaf and dumb, or so crippled as to incapacitate him for hard manual labor, from selling goods, wares or merchandise on foot, or with one horse and wagon, without a license; provided, that this section shall not be construed to require any keeper of a meat market, or dealer in agricultural machinery or farm implements, who keeps a permanent place of business, or his employes, to procure a license to sell such meats, machinery or implements as are kept in stock by him at such place; provided, that this act shall not apply to the soliciting of orders for the sale, or to the offering for sale, by sample or otherwise, of any such goods, wares, merchandise, notions, or other articles of trade, which are without the state at the time and are thereafter to be shipped or sent direct to the persons so ordering or purchasing said goods; or to the doing of any act whatsoever which amounts to an exercise of interstate commerce; provided, that this section shall be intended to include among those required to obtain licenses as peddlers, all such persons as are transient merchants, traders or dealers; such persons as bring into any town, city or village in any manner, goods, wares, merchandise, notions, or other articles of trade, except such as are excepted in this section, for the purpose of selling the same in the manner provided in this section, and who do not intend to become and do not become permanent merchants, traders or dealers in such town, city or village; permanent merchants, traders and dealers being here defined to be those who remain in a locality engaged in trade for a period of six months or more; or who pay taxes upon their goods, wares, merchandise or other articles of trade the same as other resident dealers.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
