CHAPTER 211.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money therein mentioned to Lewis Anderson.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Purpose of appropriation. SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated to Lewis Anderson of Camp Douglas Wisconsin, out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of thirty-six dollars and fifty cents, in full compensation and settlement of his claim for loss of time and medical attendance resulting from an accidental injury to his person on the 23 day of May 1899, caused by defective machinery while employed by the state on its rifle range at Camp Douglas, Wisconsin.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 25, 1901.

CHAPTER 212.

AN ACT to refund to Jefferson county the sum of sixty-three dollars, being the tax in sixty-three actions in the county court of Jefferson county, paid by mistake into the state treasury.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Erroneous payment to state treasurer. SECTION 1. There shall be paid by the state to the county treasurer of the county of Jefferson in this state, out of any moneys not otherwise appropriated, the sum of sixty-three dollars, being the amount of tax in sixty-three actions in the county court of Jefferson county, which was paid by mistake into the state treasury instead of to the county treasurer of such county, as provided by section 2939 of the statutes of 1898, which said amount is due to the said county of Jefferson from the state of Wisconsin, by reason of the said payment by mistake into the state treasury instead of to the county treasurer of said county.

Appropriating clause. SECTION 2. There is hereby appropriated the sum of sixty-three dollars out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated for above purpose.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 25, 1901.

CHAPTER 213.

AN ACT to amend section 771 of the statutes of 1898, relating to certificates as evidence.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Certificate of county surveyor or deputies as evidence. SECTION 1. That section 771 of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by inserting after the word "certificate" in the first line of said section, the following words, to-wit: "and also the official record," and also by inserting after the word "deputies" in the second line of said section the following words, to-wit: "when duly signed by him or them in his or their official capacity," so that said section when so amended shall read as follows, to-wit: Section 771. The certificate and also the official record of the county surveyor when produced by the legal custodian thereof or any of his deputies, when duly signed by him or them in his or their official capacity, shall be admitted as evidence in any court within this state, but the same may be explained or rebutted by other evidence and if any surveyor or either of his deputies be interested in any tract of land a survey of which becomes necessary, such survey may be executed
