

No. 269, S.]

[Published May 14, 1901.

CHAPTER 346.

AN ACT to amend section 160f of the statutes of 1898 relating to the state funds and interest thereon.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Statements from state depositories; penalty for false returns; disposition of interest. SECTION 1. Section 160f of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by striking out all thereof after the word "perjury" where the same occurs in the eighteenth line thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "The total interest paid by all depositories shall be apportioned by the state treasurer among, added to and become a part of the several funds as follows: That received from the general fund deposit to the general fund; that received from the school fund and the school income fund deposits, to the school income fund and the school income fund deposits to the school income fund; that received from the university fund and the university income fund deposits, to the university income fund; that received from the normal school fund and the normal school income fund deposits, to the normal school income fund; that received from the agricultural college fund and the agricultural college income fund, to the agricultural college income fund, according to the average amount of each such fund on hand the first day of each month." So that said section when amended shall read as follows: "Section 160f. Every state depository shall, on the first day of each month, and oftener when required, file with the secretary of state a sworn statement of the amount of public moneys deposited with it, and shall within ten days after the first day of each January, April, July and October make a full statement of all deposits and payments of state moneys during the preceding quarter, together with a computation and statement of the interest earned thereon, computed upon the daily balance on deposit, which interest shall thereupon be added to and become part of the deposit balance; such statement shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the president and cashier of such depository to the effect that it is in all respects true and correct, and that, except for the interest therein credited, neither said depository nor any officer, agent or employee thereof, nor any person in its behalf, has in any way whatsoever given; paid or rendered, or promised to give, pay or render to the state treasurer or to any other person any money, credit, service or benefit whatsoever by reason or in consideration of the deposit with it of any portion of the state moneys. Any person who shall make any false statement in any affidavit required by this section shall be guilty of perjury. The total interest by all depositories shall be apportioned by the state treasurer among, added to and become a part of the several funds as follows: That received from the general fund deposit to the general fund; that received from the school fund and the school income deposits, to the school income fund; that received from the university fund and the university income fund deposits, to the university income fund; that received from the normal school fund and the normal school income fund deposits, to the normal school income fund; that received from the agricultural college fund and the agricultural college income fund, to the agricultural college income fund, according to the average amount of each such fund on hand the first day of each month."

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 13, 1901.

No. 383, S.]

[Published May 14, 1901.

CHAPTER 347.

AN ACT to regulate and fix legal qualifications for kindergarten teachers in Wisconsin.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Holder of diploma to receive certificate, when. SECTION 1. The holder of a diploma granted by any incorporated kindergarten training school whose course of instruction is fully and fairly equivalent to the course of instruction in kindergarten training prescribed by the board of regents of normal schools in any of the state normal schools, may present such diploma, together with evidence of the required standing of the kinder-