CHAPTER 394.

AN ACT to empower the district attorney of any county by and with the authority of a majority of the county board of supervisors to appoint one or more assistants, a stenographer and a clerk, and to provide for the fixing and payment of salaries to such appointees.

The people of the state of Wisconsin represented in senate and assembly do enact as follows:

Majority of county board to consent to appointments. SECTION 1. The district attorney of any county, by and with the authority and consent of a majority of all members of the county board of supervisors of said county, and at a regular adjourned or special meeting thereof, and when the amount of work requires it, may appoint one or more assistants to aid him in the performance of the duties of his office. Such assistants shall be attorneys admitted to practice within the state of Wisconsin. Said district attorney may also, by and with the authority and direction of a majority of all members of the county board of supervisors of said county, and when necessary, appoint a stenographer and a clerk, to assist in the work of his office. Such assistants, stenographer and clerk, shall each receive for compensation a salary to be fixed by a resolution of the county board of supervisors adopted at a regular, adjourned or special meeting thereof. All salaries of such assistants, stenographer or clerk, when so fixed shall be paid from the treasury of such county at the same time the salaries of other county officers are paid. The assistant district attorneys so appointed, shall be fully authorized and empowered to perform all the duties of the district attorney, except the signing of indictments and informations. Any assistant district attorney, so appointed, shall not be required to give any official bond, but the district attorney making any such appointment shall be responsible and liable upon his official bond for the official acts of such assistant district attorney.

Existing laws not affected. SECTION 2. Nothing in the provisions of this act shall be construed as modifying or repealing any existing act or law of the state of Wisconsin.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage and publication.
