CHAPTER 368.

AN ACT, to provide for the transportation of wood.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Transportation of firewood. SECTION 1. Section 1800 of the statutes of 1898, is hereby amended by adding after the word "time" in the fourth line, the words "or when piled at a station in quantities sufficient to load one car," and by striking out all after the word "owner" in the ninth line, so that said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 1800. No railroad corporation shall be compelled to transport fire wood unless the same shall be piled at some reasonably convenient point on its line, in quantities sufficient to load at least five cars at a time, or when piled at a station siding in quantities sufficient to load one car. When that is done the corporation, upon five days' notice to the nearest station agent or other proper officer, shall, with all convenient dispatch, provide sufficient cars and transport such wood as required by the shipper at prices per car load, not more than the tariff of rates then in force for transportation of rails, fence posts and railroad ties; but such wood shall be loaded and unloaded by the owner."

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 369.

AN ACT, to amend section 1418 of the statutes of 1898, relating to slaughter houses.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Slaughter house; penalty. SECTION 1. Section 1418 of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1418. No person shall erect, maintain or keep any slaughter house upon the bank of any river, running stream or creek; or throw, or deposit therein, any dead animal, or any part thereof, or any of the carcass or offal therefrom; nor throw or deposit the same into or upon the banks of any river, stream or creek, which shall flow through any city, village or organized town, containing two hundred or more inhabitants; or erect, maintain or use any building for a slaughter house at any place within one-eighth of a mile of any dwelling house or a building occupied as a place of business; and every person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished, for each such violation, by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months; and the mayor of the city, president of the village, and the chairman of the town, in which any such slaughter house is located, shall have power to and shall cause the same to be immediately removed; and every such officer who shall knowingly permit any slaughter house to be used or maintained contrary to the provisions of this section shall forfeit not less than fifteen dollars nor more than fifty dollars. In any county containing a population of one hundred thousand or over, all the provisions of this section relating to slaughter houses shall apply to all
