CHAPTER 408.

AN ACT to amend section 21, statutes of 1898, as amended by section 1, chapter 96, laws of 1899, relating to notice of election by county clerk.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Notice of election, how published. SECTION 1. Section 21, statutes of 1898, as amended by section 1, chapter 96, laws of 1899, is amended by striking out the words “one newspaper published therein” in the fifth line of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof, the words “two newspapers published therein, one of which publications shall be made in a newspaper which advocates the principles of the political party that at the last preceding election cast the largest number of votes and the other publication shall be made in a newspaper which advocates the principles of the political party that then cast the next largest number of votes” so that said section, when so amended, shall read as follows: “Section 21. The county clerk thereupon shall forthwith cause a notice containing so much of the notice so received by him as relates to the questions and officers to be voted for in his county together with a statement of the several county officers to be elected by the voters of his county, to be published in at least two newspapers published therein, one of which publications shall be made in a newspaper which advocates the principles of the political party that at the last preceding election cast the largest number of votes and the other publication shall be made in a newspaper which advocates the principles of the political party that then cast the next largest number of votes, once each week until election and transmitted by mail to each town clerk, the clerk of each village in which the next ensuing general election will be held, and to one of the inspectors of election in each election district in every city of his county. Whenever the office of county clerk is vacant and there shall be no person authorized to perform his duties, the sheriff shall make out and so transmit such notices."

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
