CHAPTER 317.

AN ACT to amend chapter 19 of the laws of 1905, entitled "An act creating a grain and warehouse commission for the state of Wisconsin and providing for licensing and regulating warehouses and elevators and for the storage, weighing and inspection of grain in the city of Superior and conditionally at other terminal points in said state."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Public warehouse defined; when elevator or warehouse may be excepted from provisions of this act. SECTION 1. Section 6 of chapter 19 of the laws of Wisconsin for the year 1905 is hereby amended by adding at the end of said section 6, the following: "provided, however, that the commission may, whenever in its judgment the same is advisable, by reason of weather conditions or because of rust, smut, blight or other defects or by reason of competitive markets or inspection affecting the handling, storage, sale or other disposition of grain, give written permission to any of said elevators or warehouses for a period of six months at any one time, to mix the grain of different owners together, store different lots or parcels without preserving the identity of each and issue warehouse receipts without becoming subject to the provisions hereof, except all grain shall be weighed under the provisions hereof;” so that said section 6 when so amended, shall read as follows: “Section 6. All warehouses and elevators doing business for a compensation located in the city of Superior in which grain is stored in bulk, and in which the grain of different owners is mixed together, or in which grain is stored in such a manner that the identity of different lots or parcels cannot be accurately preserved, and all elevators and warehouses located in said city in the business of storing and handling grain which issue warehouse receipts for such grain, are hereby declared to be public warehouses; provided, however, that the commission may, whenever in its judgment the same is advisable, by reason of weather conditions or because of rust, smut, blight or other defects or by reason of competitive markets or inspection affecting the handling, storage, sale or other disposition of grain, give written permission to any of said elevators or warehouses for a period of six months at any one time, to mix the grain of different owners together, store different lots or parcels without preserving the identity of each and issue warehouse receipts without becoming subject to the provisions hereof, except all grain shall be weighed under the provisions hereof.”

Penalty for acting as inspector without authority; to whom not to apply. SECTION 2. Section 31 of said chapter 19 is hereby amended by inserting after the word “Wisconsin” in the last line of said section, the following: “provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any person who has been requested in writing, either directly or indirectly, by the commission to inspect grain, so long as such request is not withdrawn.” So that said section 31 when so amended shall read as follows: “Section 31. Any person who shall assume to act as an inspector of grain in the city of Superior, who has not first been appointed as provided in this act, or has not made and filed his oath of office and given bond where such bond is required, shall be held to be an imposter, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars for each and every attempt to so inspect grain, and if the complaint is made by any member of the grain and warehouse commission, or of any inspector or deputy inspector, one half of said fine shall go to said grain and warehouse commission, and the remaining half to the school fund, and in case the complaint is made by any other person, one half of said fine shall go to the person so complaining and the remaining half to the school fund; such prosecution to be in the name of the state of Wisconsin, and shall be prosecuted by the district attorney of Douglas county or the attorney general of the state of Wisconsin, provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any person who has been requested in writing, either directly or indirectly, by the commission to inspect grain, so long as such request is not withdrawn."

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
