CHAPTER 58.

AN ACT to amend section 865, chapter 40 of the statutes of 1898, by adding thereto a provision authorizing the electors of a recently incorporated, but unorganized village, to vote at judicial and general elections and the elections for state and county superintendents.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

When village a corporation. SECTION 1. Section 865, chapter 40 of the statutes of 1898, is hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 865. If a majority of the ballots given at such meeting shall have thereon the word "no" the electors of such territory shall be deemed not to have assented to the incorporation thereof as a village, and no further proceedings shall be had in respect to such incorporation under such application and order; but if a majority of such ballots shall have thereon the word "yes" the inhabitants of such territory shall, from the time of the recording of the order of the court aforesaid in the office of the register of deeds, be deemed a body corporate by the name specified in such order, and the inspectors who shall have presided at such meeting shall cause a statement of the holding of such meeting to be made showing the whole number of ballots given thereat, the number having thereon the word "yes" and the number having thereon the word "no," which statement shall be verified by the affidavit of the said inspectors written thereon or annexed thereto, to be likewise recorded in the office of the register of deeds as hereinafter provided; provided further that if after any village shall have become a separate and independent municipality under the provisions of this chapter, there shall not remain, before the next ensuing judicial election or election for state or county superintendent or before any general election, time to comply with the provisions of any law relating to the holding of such judicial election or election for state or county superintendent or general election, then and in that event such village shall, for the purposes of such ensuing judicial election or election for state or county superintendent or general election, remain a part of the election district or districts to which the same was attached before said separation was had.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 1, 1905.
