CHAPTER 72.

AN ACT to amend section 3716 of the statutes of 1898, and providing that any number of garnishees may be embraced in the same affidavit and garnishee summons.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Affidavit for garnishment. SECTION 1. Section 3716 of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 3716. Whenever any action shall have been commenced, by summons, upon contract, express or implied, or by warrant of attachment in a justice's court, if the plaintiff or some one in his behalf shall make and deliver to the officer having such summons or attachment an affidavit stating that the affiant has good reason to believe that some person (naming him) is indebted to the defendant or has personal property in his possession or under his control belonging to the defendant, or when there is more than one defendant, to any or either of them, not by law exempt from sale on execution, and demand that he shall summon such person as garnishee such officer shall summon such person in writing to appear before the justice, on the return day of such summons or attachment, to answer touching his liability as garnishee. Such affidavit may be amended with the same effect as is provided in section 3702. Any number of garnishees may be embraced in the same affidavit and garnishee summons but if a joint liability be claimed against any it shall be so stated in such affidavit and the garnishee named as jointly liable shall be deemed jointly proceeded against, otherwise the several garnishees shall be deemed severally proceeded against.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
