CHAPTER 399.

AN ACT to amend chapter 91, laws of 1897, and providing for the appointment of several deputy clerks for the municipal court of the eastern district of the county of Waukesha.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Clerk's deputies, town and village: duty, oath, bond, fees. SECTION 1. Chapter 91, laws of 1897 is amended by adding thereto a new section to read: Section 8m. Said judge may also appoint in writing a deputy clerk for each incorporated village and for each town in which there is no incorporated village within said municipal district, to hold his office in the village or town for which he is so appointed during the pleasure of said judge. Each of said deputy clerks shall be and hereby is authorized to examine all persons applying for warrants and may reduce their examinations to writing and file the same and to issue warrants thereon which warrants shall be returnable before said municipal court at the court house in the city of Waukesha. Each of said deputy clerks authorized by this act shall, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, take and subscribe the oath and give the bond required by section 8 of said chapter 91 of the laws of 1897. Each of said deputy clerks shall receive as full compensation for his said services the sum of fifty cents in each case where a warrant shall be so issued by him, his bill therefor to be audited by the county board and paid out of the county treasury, which said sum is to be taxed and allowed in each such case as costs of the action.
