Approved June 26, 1907.

(In effect July 1, 1907.)

Minimum capital in city suburbs. 4. * * * In any city having a population of twenty thousand or more in which there may hereafter be one or more suburbs, each such suburb comprising one or more wards of said city, and in which suburb or suburbs there may hereafter be located any bank or banks, the aggregate amount of the capital stock of any such bank shall be based upon the population of the ward in which said bank is located.

Title of banks. 5. Every bank incorporated under this chapter shall be known as a state bank.

(Ch. 545, 1907.)

Insane widow: administrator or executor to elect for.

SECTION 2172a. 1. When a widow, entitled to an election under sections 2170 or 2171, shall, at any time within one year after the filing of a petition for the appointment of an administrator of an estate, or for the probate of the will of her husband, is, or was at the time of his death, insane or mentally incompetent, or becomes insane or mentally incompetent to make such election, such election may be made for her within two years from the filing of such petition, by her duly appointed guardian, executor or administrator. Such guardian, executor or administrator may make such election for such widow or her estate by filing in the court having jurisdiction of the settlement of the estate, a notice in writing that he elects for and on behalf of said widow or her estate to take the provisions made for her by law, instead of any jointure, devise or other provisions of her husband's will, and the filing of such notice, by such guardian, executor or administrator, shall have the same force and effect as though notice in writing had been filed in said court by said widow as hereinbefore provided.

2. Such election may be only made by the executor or administrator of such widow leaving issue by such deceased husband.
