CHAPTER 661.

AN ACT to submit to the people amendments to the constitution.

Proposed constitutional amendments. WHEREAS, At the biennial session of the legislature of this state in the year 1905 amendments to the constitution were proposed and agreed to by a majority of the members elect to each of the two houses, which amendments were in the following language:

Income tax. 3. Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That section 1 of article 8 of the constitution of the state of Wisconsin be amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "Taxes may also be imposed on incomes, privileges and occupations, which taxes may be graduated and progressive, and reasonable exemptions may be provided," so that when so amended said section shall read as follows: "Section 1. The rule of taxation shall be uniform, and taxes shall be levied upon such property as the legislature shall prescribe. Taxes may also be imposed on incomes, privileges and occupations, which taxes may be graduated and progressive, and reasonable exemptions may be provided."

Governor's approval of bills. 2. Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That section 10 of article 5 of the constitution be amended by striking out the word "three" in line thirteen and inserting in lieu thereof the word "six" so that when so amended said section shall read as follows:

SECTION 10. Every bill which shall have passed the legislature shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the governor; if he approve, he shall sign it, but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large upon the journal and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of the members present shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of the members present it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for or against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the governor within six days (Sunday excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law unless the legislature shall, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

Citizenship of electors. 4. Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That sub-section 2 of section 1 of article 3, of the constitution of the state of Wisconsin, be amended so as to read as follows: 2. Persons of foreign birth who, prior to the first day of December, A. D. 1908, shall have declared their intentions to become citizens conformable to the laws of the United States on the subject of naturalization, provided that the rights hereby granted to such persons shall cease on the first day of December, A. D. 1912.

WHEREAS, The foregoing proposed amendments to the constitution of this state were duly ratified and agreed to by the legislature thereof at the biennial session in 1907 by a majority of all the members elected to each house thereof, therefore;

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Submission to the people. SECTION 1. The foregoing proposed amendments to the constitution of this state shall be submitted to the people at a general election to be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November, 1908, and if the people shall approve and ratify any or all of the said amendments by a majority of the electors voting thereon, each such amendment so ratified shall become a part of the constitution of this state.

Ballot form and marking; canvass and return. SECTION 2. The form of the ballot to be cast on the question of adopting or rejecting the said amendments shall be respectively:
1. "For the amendments authorizing a graduated income tax." 2. "For the amendment extending from three to six days the time allowed the governor in which to approve bills." 3. "For the amendment providing that after December 1st, 1912, electors shall be citizens of the United States." Opposite each of said questions shall be two spaces over one of which shall be printed the word "Yes" and over the other the word "No." The voter may mark his ballot in the space under whichever of said words indicates his intention. The marks made shall be such as the law now provides for. Said form of ballot shall be printed upon the ballot to be voted at such election after the names of the candidates and separated therefrom by an appropriate line or rule. The votes cast on the adoption of said amendments shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as other votes cast at such election, and the result shall be determined and published in the manner provided by law.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved July 16, 1907.
