CHAPTER 118.

AN ACT to amend section 1966—50 of the statutes, relating to risks which may be assumed by live stock companies.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1966—50 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1966—50. Any number of persons, not less than six may, in the manner hereinafter prescribed, form a corporation for the purpose of insuring domestic animals against loss or damage by accident, theft or any contingent event whatever which may be the subject of insurance, * * * and may provide for furnishing the services of a veterinary surgeon to treat any animal upon which it may have assumed a risk; but no such corporation shall * * * assume a risk on any one animal exceeding one-twentieth of its actual paid up capital.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 12, 1909.

CHAPTER 119.

AN ACT to amend section 1494—57 of the statutes, making provisions for all engines operated in, through, or near forest or brush land.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1494—57 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1494—57. 1. It shall be unlawful for any logging locomotive, donkey or threshing engine, railway locomotive, and all other engines, boilers, and locomotives, operated in, through, or near forest, brush, or grass land, which do not burn oil as fuel, to be operated without a netting of steel or iron wires so constructed as to give the most practicable protection against the escape of sparks, cinders, or fire from the smoke stacks thereof, and each such engine shall be provided with adequate devices to prevent the escape of fire from ash-pans and fire-boxes.

2. Every * * * corporation maintaining and operating a railway shall, at least once in each year, as far as practicable,
