

Section 1466. The principal officers of the state board of agriculture, the northern Wisconsin state fair and of any county agricultural or industrial society shall have full jurisdiction and control of the grounds on which such board or society may exhibit, and all the streets and alleys and other grounds adjacent to the same during all such exhibitions, so far as may be necessary to exclude therefrom all other exhibitions, booths, stands or other temporary places for the retail or sale of any kind of spirituous or fermented liquors or other articles that they might deem objectionable. The president, or, in his absence, any vice-president acting in his stead, may appoint at any time any necessary policemen to assist in preserving the peace and enforce the regulations upon the ground and adjacent streets, who, for such purpose, shall have all the powers of a constable and be entitled to similar fees.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 192.

AN ACT to create section 3072m of the statutes, relating to setting aside judgment or ordering new trial on appeal.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 3072m. No judgment shall be reversed or set aside or new trial granted in any action or proceeding, civil or criminal, on the ground of misdirection of the jury, or the improper admission of evidence, or for error as to any matter of pleading or procedure, unless in the opinion of the court to which the application is made, after an examination of the entire action or proceeding, it shall appear that the error complained of has affected the substantial rights of the party seeking to reverse or set aside the judgment, or to secure the new trial.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 26, 1909.
