Any town insurance company organized, or attempted to be organized under the provisions of section 1927 to 1941 inclusive of the statutes, or the acts of which said sections are amendatory, if doing business as such corporation at the time of the taking effect of this act, notwithstanding the term of duration of its corporate existence has expired, the invalidity of any amendment to its articles of organization, or any provision or provisions of law may not have been complied with in such organization, shall be held and considered to be a corporation duly organized and existing under the sections of the statutes aforesaid, and the term of duration of any such corporation is hereby extended without any limitation whatever; all provided, that the said corporation shall file with the commissioner of insurance a copy of its articles of organization and any amendments thereto, duly verified as such by the affidavit of its president and secretary, and within thirty days after such filing, record a copy thereof, duly certified by the commissioner of insurance, in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the home office of said corporation is located. Thereupon all acts of such corporation are validated.
