CHAPTER 64.

AN ACT to amend sect'on 1 of chapter 247 of the laws of 1899, relating to the municipal court of Douglas county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 247, of the laws of 1899, is amended to read: Section 1. Section 4 of chapter 181 of the laws of 1889, as amended by section 3, chapter 61 of the laws of 1891, and section 3, chapter 112 of the laws of 1893, as amended by chapter 247 of the laws of 1899, is amended to read: Section 4. Said judge shall file his oath of office and official bond in manner and form as provided for justices of the peace. The person designated and elected as municipal judge of said court shall have the control and direction of the commencement of all actions, and of the proceedings therein, and in the event of the disqualification or absence of such municipal judge, the duties of said office shall be performed by a justice of the peace, who shall be thereunto designated by said municipal judge, in writing, and when performing such duties said justice of the peace shall receive three dollars for each half day and five dollars for each whole day, in lieu of all fees, one-half to be paid by the city of Superior, and one-half by the county of Douglas. Said municipal judge shall receive as compensation a salary of * * * eighteen hundred dollars per annum, * * * nine hundred dollars to be paid monthly from the treasury of Douglas county, * * * nine hundred dollars to be paid monthly from the treasury of the city of Superior, and said * * * eighteen hundred dollars to be in full payment of all his fees for cases arising out of said ordinances and the penal statutes of the state. In case of voluntary absences of the municipal judge, he shall be liable for all pay exceeding three hundred dollars in any calendar year, of the justices of the peace when called in by him.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 23, 1909.
