CHAPTER 107.

AN ACT to amend section 2401 of the statutes, relating to supreme court attendants.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2401 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 2401. Such justices may also appoint a crier for said court, who shall attend the terms thereof and perform all the duties required of him by law or by said court, or by the justices thereof. Such crier shall be allowed the sum of two dollars for each day's actual attendance upon such duties, to be audited upon the written allowance of the chief justice or, in case of his absence or sickness, of one of the justices, and paid out of the state treasury. And such justices may further appoint a marshal and assign to him such duties in and about the judicial rooms as they may see fit, including the duties of crier when there is no person holding such position who is competent to act, and such marshal shall be allowed a salary of one hundred dollars per month to be paid out of the state treasury.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 108.

AN ACT to amend chapter 65, of the private and local laws of 1852, as amended by chapter 28, of the private and local laws of 1861, relating to Racine college.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2, of chapter 65, of the private and local laws of 1852 is amended to read: Section 2. * * * The said college shall be located * * * in the county of Racine, *provided, that the board of trustees may at any time locate the whole or any department of said college at any other place within this state which they shall deem advisable; * * * the said college shall be erected on a plan sufficiently extensive to afford instruction in the liberal arts and sciences; and the trustees may, as their ability shall increase, and the interests of the country require, erect any or all of the different departments for the study of the liberal professions, in such locations as may be most feasible * * .

SECTION 2. Section 3, of said chapter 65, of the private and local laws of 1852, as amended by chapter 28, of the private and local laws of 1861, is amended to read: Section 3. The board of trustees shall have full power to prescribe the course of instruction and discipline to be pursued in said college and its departments; to appoint, and at pleasure remove such officers, professors, teachers, and agents as they may see fit, and prescribe their duties, and generally direct, manage, and control the business and affairs of the said corporation, in such manner as they may be of opinion will best promote its objects; also, they shall fill all vacancies that occur in their own board by registration, or death, or neglect for more than one year to attend to the duties of the trustees; * * * provided, however, that not less than three-fourths of the members of said board of trustees shall be communicants of the Protestant Episcopal church.

* * * The annual meeting of said board of trustees shall be held on the day preceding commencement day in each year, unless a different time be fixed by said board; and such other regular meetings may be held during the year as the board may by resolution determine; in case of emergency, the president with the concurrence of two trustees, may call a special meeting, or any five members may call such meeting by giving notice to the members of the board at least ten days before the time of such meeting.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
