CHAPTER 153.

AN ACT to amend section 4320 of the statutes, relating to the support of prisoners confined in jail on civil processes.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4320 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 4320. 1. Except as hereinafter provided, whenever a person is committed to jail on execution issued on a judgment recovered in a civil action, the creditor, his agent, or attorney shall advance to the jailer within twenty-four hours after such commitment, sufficient money to pay for the support of said prisoner during the time for which he may be imprisoned; and in case the money shall not be so advanced, or, if during the time the prisoner may be in confinement the money shall be expended in the support of such prisoner, the jailer shall forthwith discharge such prisoner from custody, and such discharge shall have the same effect as a discharge by order of the court.

2. Whenever a person is committed to jail because of refusal or failure to comply with any order of a court respecting the payment of alimony or suit money in a divorce action, it shall not be necessary to advance to the jailer money to pay for the support of such person, but the county in which such commitment shall be made shall be liable to the jailer for the support of the prisoner during the time for which he may be imprisoned.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 12, 1911.

CHAPTER 155.

AN ACT to repeal subsection 1, of section 1931, of the statutes, and to create a new subsection of section 1931 of the statutes, relating to town insurance companies.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection 1, of section 1931, of the statutes, is repealed.

SECTION 2. There is added to section 1931 of the statutes a new subsection to be designated and to read: (Section 1931)

1. (a) No such corporation shall insure any property outside of the territory described in its articles of incorporation or any resolution adopted pursuant to the former law extending such territory, or any amendment to its articles.

(b) Any city or incorporated village within or adjoining any town belonging to such territory, may be included therein or added thereto, the same as any other town, but such city or village shall not be counted in determining the number of towns under which such corporation may do business. Any such company now transacting business in any such city or village, now existing or hereafter organized, without the same being included in its territory, as hereinbefore specified, may nevertheless continue to do business therein until the second annual meeting after the passage of this act or the organization of such city or village, when all business in such company shall be cancelled or the articles be amended to specifically include such city or village.

(c) No property shall be insured in any such city or village except farm property or detached dwelling houses and contents, or barns or outbuildings used in connection with such dwelling house and not used for trade or manufacturing, and the contents of such barns or outbuildings.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 13, 1911.
