CHAPTER 239.

AN ACT to repeal sections 2360k, 2360l, 2374, 3041, and subsection 3, of section 2330, to amend subsection 2, of section 2330, and to create sections 2374 and 3041 of the statutes, relating to actions for divorce and marriages.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 2360k, 2360l, 2374, 3041, and subsection 3, of section 2330, of the statutes, are repealed.

SECTION 2. Subsection 2, of section 2330, of the statutes, is amended to read: (Section 2330) 2. It shall not be lawful for any person, who is a party to an action for divorce from the bonds of matrimony, in any court in this state, to marry again until * * * *one year after judgment of divorce is entered, and the marriage of any such person solemnized before the * * * expiration of one year from the date of the entry of judgment of divorce shall be null and void.*

SECTION 3. There are added to the statutes two new sections to read: Section 2374. 1. When a judgment of divorce from the bonds of matrimony is granted in this state by a court, such judgment, so far as it determines the status of the parties, shall not be effective, except for the purpose of an appeal to review the same, until the expiration of one year from the date of the entry of such judgment.

2. So far as said judgment determines the status of the parties the court shall have power to vacate or modify the same, for sufficient cause shown, upon its own motion, or upon the application of either party to the action, at any time within one year from the entry of such judgment. But no such judgment shall be vacated or modified without the service of notice of motion, or order to show cause on the divorce counsel, and on the parties to the action, if they be found. If the judgment shall be vacated it shall restore the parties to the marital relation that existed before the entry of such judgment.

3. It shall be the duty of every judge, who shall enter a judgment of divorce, to inform the parties appearing in court that the judgment, so far as it affects the status of the parties, will not become effective until one year from the date when such judgment is entered.

4. Such judgment, or any provision of the same, may be reviewed by an appeal taken within one year from the date when such judgment was entered. At the expiration of such year, such judgment shall become final and conclusive without further proceedings, unless an appeal be pending, or the court, for sufficient cause shown, upon its own motion, or upon the application of a party to the action, shall otherwise order before the expiration of said period. If an appeal be pending at the expiration of said year, such judgment shall not become final and conclusive until said appeal shall have been finally determined.

SECTION 3041. The time within which an appeal may be taken from any order modifying or revising a judgment of divorce, so far as it determines the status of the parties to the action, is limited to six months from the date of the entry of such order.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
