CHAPTER 45.

AN ACT to amend subdivision 1 of section 959p of the statutes, relating to the sprinkling of streets.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subdivision 1 of section 959p of the statutes is amended to read: Section 959p. 1. Whenever a petition shall be presented to the common council of any city of the second, third, or fourth class, signed by the owners of more than one-half of the land abutting on any street in any block or number of blocks, praying that such part of said street be sprinkled during a specified time, said common council shall cause such street or part of such street to be sprinkled as prayed for. Whenever the common council shall so decide, it may without petition cause any street or portion of a street, which shall have been permanently improved, * * * to be sprinkled during such period as it may order. The board of public works, or the person or body performing the duties of such board, shall keep an accurate account of the cost of such sprinkling and shall, on or before the first Monday of November, present to the common council a complete and accurate statement of the cost of all sprinkling done during the preceding summer, and shall state the cost to each block separately.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 47.

AN ACT to amend subsections 2 and 3 of section 11—7 of the statutes, relating to rotation of names on the primary ballot.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsections 2 and 3 of section 11—7 of the statutes are amended to read: 2. a. For the purpose of determining the order in which the names of candidates for each state office shall be placed upon the primary ballot, the secretary of state shall number the assembly districts in the state consecutively, from one to one hundred in the order of their population according to the last preceding published census, beginning with the district having the largest population, which shall be numbered one.

b. In determining the order in which the names of candidates for representatives in congress, and state senators in districts comprising more than one county, shall be placed upon the primary ballot, the secretary of state shall number the assembly districts and parts of districts in each congressional or sena-
