CHAPTER 163.

AN ACT to amend section 726 of the statutes, relating to powers and duties of sheriff after term.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 726 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 726. Every sheriff, undersheriff and deputy may execute and return all writs, processes and orders which shall be in their hands at the expiration of the sheriff's term of office which such sheriff, undersheriff or deputy shall have begun to execute by service, levy, advertisement or the collection of money thereon; and in case of a vacancy in the office of sheriff, his undersheriff and deputies then in office having then any writ, process or order in their hands shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to serve, execute and return the same as if such sheriff had continued in office; provided, that in all counties where the compensation of sheriffs, undersheriffs and deputies has been changed from the fee to the salary system as provided for by statute, the provision of this section shall not apply, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff immediately upon the expiration of his term to turn over to his successor all writs, processes and orders which shall be in his hands, or in the hands of his undersheriff or deputies, whether or not such writs, processes and orders have been partly or fully executed or returned, and it shall be the duty of such successor to execute and return or to complete the execution and return of such writs, processes and orders.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 164.

AN ACT to amend section 1747-5 of the statutes, relating to the grain and warehouse commission.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1747-5 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1747-5. 1. It shall be the duty of the commission created by sections 1747-1 to 1747-55, inclusive, to superintend the inspection, weighing and grading of all grain milled or received for milling, bought or sold in the city of Superior, and of all grain received for storage, stored or shipped from any and all elevators and warehouses located in said city which are required to take out licenses under the provisions of this act. For the purpose of making such inspection, weighing and grading of grain, said commission shall have the power, and it shall be their duty to appoint a chief inspector and one or more deputy inspectors, a weighmaster and one or more deputy weighmasters, and to adopt and publish rules and regulations governing the inspection, weighing and grading of grain delivered into or shipped out of any and all such elevators and warehouses in said city. And there is further granted to said commission full power and authority to make such further regulations as will enable them to fully comply with all the provisions of this act, including the granting of licenses to elevators and warehouses hereinafter provided for, and the establishment and collection of charges and fees for the inspection, weighing and grading of the grain.

2. The commission may, upon request, enforce reasonable regulations for the weighing of cars of coal offered for shipment in carload lots and may direct any deputy weighmaster to weigh coal in carload lots on the docks within the territory under its jurisdiction, except coal shipped by any person, firm or corporation for its own use or consumption, and issue weighing certificates therefor, and to inspect and supervise scales therefor. The commission shall fix a fee for any such services, and such fee and all expenses incurred by the commission in complying with such request shall be paid by the person, firm or corporation making the request therefor.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 165.

AN ACT to create sections 1791n—9, 1791n—10, 1791n—11 and 1791n—12 of the statutes, relating to discrimination in the selling and buying of commodities, and providing a penalty.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There are added to the statutes four new sections to read: Section 1791n—9. 1. Any person, firm, or corporation, foreign or domestic, doing business in this state and engaged in the production, manufacture or distribution of any commodity in general use, that shall intentionally, for the purpose of destroying the competition of any regular, established
