CHAPTER 177.

AN ACT to amend sections 909b and 909c of the statutes, relating to the building of sidewalks in villages.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 909b and 909c of the statutes are amended to read: Section 909b. In case any person, corporation, company or society of persons shall fail to build, rebuild or repair such sidewalk within the time required by said notice, the street commissioner or committee on streets shall have authority to repair, rebuild or build the said sidewalk and certify and return * * * to the village clerk * * * *the total cost of such work, and the cost of such work done opposite each separately owned piece of land fronting on such street or portion thereof, which amount shall be * * * a lien on * * * such piece of land * * * from the date of ordering such work.*

Section 909c. On the return of the street commissioner or committee on streets showing that he has repaired, rebuilt or built anew any sidewalk, and the persons liable therefor have not paid the cost or expense thereof, the same shall be * * * entered and collected the same as other village taxes, and returned in the delinquent tax list for unpaid taxes, and collection thereof enforced in the same manner as other unpaid real estate taxes, and with like interest and penalties. If from any cause whatever, such tax * * * shall not be entered on such tax roll the same may be placed on any tax roll thereafter. * * * The village board may also give a separate certificate of the amount so assessed upon each such piece of land, and may deliver such certificate to the contractor in part payment of his work, and the same shall entitle the contractor to demand and receive the amount thereof when such assessment shall be collected by the proper village or county officers, with any interest that shall have been collected therewith.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
