CHAPTER 287.

AN ACT to detach certain territory from the town of Cable, in Bayfield county, and to create the town of Namekagon.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All that certain territory in the county of Bayfield and state of Wisconsin, described as follows, to wit: township number forty-three (43) north of range number five (5) west, and township number forty-three (43) north of range number six (6) west, is detached from the town of Cable, and is created and constituted a separate town, to be known and designated as the town of Namekagon.

SECTION 2. The assets and liabilities of the town of Cable, existing at the time this act shall go into effect, shall be apportioned to the town of Cable and to the town of Namekagon, hereby created, according to the provisions of section 672 of the statutes; and the liabilities, if any, so apportioned, shall be paid according to the provisions of said section 672 of the statutes.

SECTION 3. On the third day of June, A. D. 1914, at two o'clock in the afternoon of that day, the town boards of the towns of Cable and Namekagon shall meet at the office of the town clerk of the town of Cable for the purpose of making a settlement between the said two towns, according to the provisions of this act; and at such meeting, or any other subsequent or adjourned meeting, held by said town boards, any three of the supervisors shall have full power and authority to send for any persons, books, papers or records necessarily involved in the settlement between said two towns. A copy of such apportionment, so made, shall be filed with the clerks of the towns of Cable and Namekagon.

SECTION 4. The qualified electors of the town of Namekagon, hereby created, shall meet at the schoolhouse, known as the Loughlin schoolhouse, the same being located in lot number two, section twenty-one, township forty-three north, range six west, on the day appointed by law for the holding of the annual town meeting in the year 1914; and shall, in the manner provided by law, elect town officers for said town; and for the purpose of such election, the qualified voters of said town of Namekagon, assembled at the place aforesaid, shall, between the hours of nine and eleven o'clock in the forenoon of said day, choose three of their number to act as inspectors of said election, and such electors shall, before entering upon their duties as inspectors, take and subscribe the usual oath of office, and file the same with their return; and such inspectors shall canvass and return the votes cast at such election in all respects as provided by law for inspectors at annual town meetings; and the qualified electors so assembled at the place aforesaid, may vote for all officers to be chosen on said day, and the votes cast for such officers shall be counted, canvassed and returned in the same manner, and shall have the same effect as if said town of Namekagon were fully organized; and said electors so assembled shall have full power to make all provisions for the government of said town as are now authorized by statute to be exercised and made at the annual town meeting of any town.

SECTION 5. When such election shall have been held as herein provided, and the town officers required by law elected, and such officers have duly qualified, as required by law, the said town of Namekagon shall be deemed to be duly organized, and shall possess all the rights, powers and liabilities of other towns in this state.

SECTION 6. And notice of said first meeting shall be given by the posting of a copy of this act in at least five public places in said new town of Namekagon, at least five days before the time of holding said first town meeting, which notice may be posted by any duly qualified elector of said new town, who shall make a proper affidavit of such posting, and file the same on the day of said first town meeting, with the inspectors chosen at said first town meeting to conduct the same.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 17, 1913.
