

No. 42, S.]

[Published May 29, 1913.

CHAPTER 324.

AN ACT to amend section 2339g of the statutes, relating to marriage licenses.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2339g of the statutes is amended to read: Section 2339g. Upon application of either of the parties to a proposed marriage, any county judge, court of record or presiding judge thereof, in his discretion, upon satisfactory evidence being presented that either of the parties to the proposed marriage is dangerously ill, such illness being liable to result in death, or that the female is pregnant with child or at the request of the parent or parents or guardian, if any, of the female, by order may authorize the marriage without * * *, the delay of five days after the issuing of such license. The person applying for such order or dispensation must be a resident of the state for at least thirty days. Such order shall be delivered to the person performing the ceremony and by him * * * retained as prima facie evidence of his authority to perform the marriage ceremony. The judge or court making such order shall not receive any compensation therefor from the county, except that where the order is made by a county judge or county court, the judge may charge the party applying for such order the sum of two dollars, which sum shall be paid to the county treasurer.

(See c. 699.)

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 26, 1913.

No. 47, S.]

[Published May 29, 1913.

CHAPTER 325.

AN ACT to amend section 496k of the statutes, relating to high schools.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 496k of the statutes is amended to read: Section 496k. Whenever persons, not residing in any free high school district and having completed the course of study in the school district in which he resides, or one equivalent thereto, as herein provided, enter any free high school, the free high school board of that district shall be entitled and is hereby authorized to charge a tuition fee for such pupils not to exceed * * * one dollar per week. On or before the first day of July in each