CHAPTER 41.

AN ACT to amend sections 5731 and 588 of the statutes, relating to the charges for support of inmates at the home for the feeble-minded and at the state hospitals for the insane.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 5731 and 588 of the statutes are amended to read: Section 5731. All such persons as are described in the preceding section may be admitted to said home after such examination into their condition as is required to be made to determine the condition of persons who are alleged to be insane and for whom admission is sought to the state hospitals or county asylums for the insane. All the provisions of law relating to the examination and commitment of such alleged insane persons shall, so far as applicable, apply to persons whom it is sought to have committed to the home for the feeble-minded; and all the powers conferred upon the judges of the several courts as to such alleged insane persons and all the duties devolved upon such judges in relation to their examination and commitment shall be exercised in the examination and commitment of persons to said home, so far as such powers and duties are applicable. All persons resident of this state who may be committed to said home for the feeble-minded shall be maintained therein at the expense of the state; but the county in which any such person last resided before being brought to the home shall pay * * * one dollar and seventy-five cents per week for his or her support and thirty dollars per year for the clothing to be supplied such person. The relatives, friends or guardians of any person committed thereto may pay for his maintenance and clothing or any part thereof, and the accounts of such persons shall be credited with any sum so paid. This charge shall also be made for the maintenance of any persons transferred by the board of control to said home. Said board shall adopt and publish a schedule of maximum charges for the care of such persons who shall not be entitled to be kept therein free of charge.

Section 588. All insane persons, residents of this state, who may be admitted into said hospitals shall be maintained therein at the expense of the state; but the county in which such patient resided before being brought to the hospital shall pay for all necessary clothing, when not otherwise supplied, and * * * one dollar and seventy-five cents per week for the patient's support; and the relatives, friends or guardians of any patient may pay for his maintenance and clothing or any part thereof, and the account of such patient shall be credited with any sums so paid; and they may provide him with special care or a special attendant as may be agreed upon with the superintendent upon payment quarterly in advance of the charges and expenses thereof.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 42.

AN ACT to create section 4560b of the statutes, relating to fish and game and prohibiting the use of snag lines, and providing a penalty.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 4560b. 1. It shall be unlawful to set, place or use any snag line or snag lines of any kind in any of the inland waters of this state or to have or control any such snag line or snag lines with a purpose to take, catch or kill any sturgeon, catfish or Mississippi bullhead in any such waters. For the purposes of this section a snag line shall mean any line or cable to which a number of fishhooks or clusters of fishhooks of any
