CHAPTER 106.

AN ACT to amend sections 1276, 1277, 1279 and 1280 of the statutes, relating to appeals in highway proceedings, and to repeal sections 1278 and 1281 of the statutes, relating to the same subject.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1276 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1276. Any person who shall consider himself aggrieved by any order laying out, altering, widening, or discontinuing any highway or by any refusal so to do under the preceding provisions may, within thirty days after such determination, appeal therefrom and apply * * * to the county judge for the appointment of commissioners to review such order or determination. Failure of the supervisors to act upon the application required by section 1267 within sixty days after the same was filed in town clerk's office shall be deemed a refusal to lay out, alter, widen, or discontinue the highway; and any person who shall consider himself aggrieved by such refusal, may appeal therefrom in the manner herein provided for an appeal from the order refusing to lay out, alter, widen, or discontinue the highway. Such application shall be in writing and shall briefly state the grounds upon which it is made, and whether it be made to reverse entirely such order or determination or only a part, and in the latter case it shall state what part; provided that in case of highways upon a line between two or more counties such application may be made * * * to the county judge of either county bounded in whole or in part by such highway.

SECTION 2. Section 1277 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1277. Upon filing such application and a bond executed to the town or towns, or town, city or village, as the case may require, with sufficient sureties to be approved by the judge * * * conditioned to pay all costs arising from such appeal, provided such order or determination of the supervisors or supervisors and commissioners shall not be reversed, such judge * * * shall issue a notice specifying therein a time and place
