

pend sentence and place such minor under the guidance and control of some reputable and suitable adult person, who shall have consented in writing to become responsible for the good behavior of such minor, for such period of probation not exceeding six months as the court may fix.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved March 20, 1915.

No. 3, S.]

[Published March 22, 1915.

CHAPTER 14.

AN ACT to create section 1492ab—5 of the statutes, relating to suppression of dangerous diseases among domestic animals in this state; and making an appropriation for the state's share of expense, including compensation to owners of slaughtered animals, incurred in connection with the foot and mouth disease prior to the passage of this act.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to the statutes a new section to read: Section 1492ab—5. 1. Whenever it is determined by the live stock sanitary board and the state constitutional officers that it is necessary to combat dangerous diseases among domestic animals in this state in cooperation with the bureau of animal industry of the United States department of agriculture and to destroy animals affected with or which have been exposed to any such disease or to destroy property in the disinfection of the premises or to do any other act or incur any other expense reasonably necessary in suppressing or combating such disease, the state live stock sanitary board may accept, on behalf of the state, the rules and regulations prepared by the United States department of agriculture under authority of an act of congress relating to the suppression of any such disease and cooperate with the authorities of the United States in the enforcement of their provisions; or it may follow such procedure as to inspection, condemnation, appraisal, disinfection and other acts reasonably necessary in the suppression of such diseases as may be agreed upon and adopted by the live stock sanitary board and the state constitutional officers with the representatives of the United States department of agriculture. Within the amount which may, subsequent to the passage and publication of this act, be appropriated for this purpose, the state shall pay such proportion of the expense incurred in suppressing or combating any such disease and in compensating owners of animals slaughtered under the provisions of this subsection as shall be determined by and mutually agreed upon with the United States department of agriculture.

SECTION 2. There is appropriated to the state live stock sanitary board out of any money in the general fund, not otherwise appropriated, not to exceed Seventy-five Thousand Dollars to pay the state's share of the expense, including compensation due owners of slaughtered animals, incurred in suppressing and combating, in cooperation with the United States department of agriculture, the outbreaks of the "foot and mouth" disease in this state prior to the passage of this act.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved March 20, 1915.

No. 253, S.]

[Published March 22, 1915.

CHAPTER 15.

AN ACT to amend section 2505 of the annotated statutes of 1889, as amended by section 3, chapter 7, laws of 1895, relating to the municipal court of Milwaukee county.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2505 of the annotated statutes of 1889, as amended by section 3, chapter 7, laws of 1895 is amended to read: Section 2505 (annotated statutes 1889). Said clerk may appoint three or more deputy clerks, either of whom may perform the clerk's duties in his absence from his office, and for whose acts said clerk and the sureties upon his official bond shall be liable. The appointments shall be in writing, shall be subject to the approval of the municipal judge, and shall be filed in said court, and may be revoked at the pleasure of the judge or clerk. Each of such deputies before entering upon his duties shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed in the constitution, which oath shall be filed in the office of the city clerk of the city of Milwaukee. In case of a vacancy in the office of the clerk for any reason, the deputy designated by the judge for that purpose shall perform the duties of clerk until the vacancy is filled.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved March 20, 1915.