AN ACT to amend section 927—4 of the statutes, relating to unpaid water and light rentals in cities and villages.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 927—4 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 927—4. On the * * * fifteenth day of November in each year the village or city treasurer or other officer authorized to audit and collect payments for the furnishing of water or lights by any village, however incorporated, or by any city under special charter to the inhabitants thereof * * * may certify and report to the village or city clerk of said village or city a list of all lots or parcels of real estate to which water or lights have been furnished by the village or city for the preceding year, the rentals whereof, being past due, remain unpaid, and the names of the owners and occupants of said real estate to whom said water or lights have been furnished. If such rentals or dues are not paid within * * * fifteen days thereafter, and if so certified, the village or city clerk shall insert the same in the tax roll as a delinquent tax against the property the occupants of which are so furnished with light or water, and such dues or rentals shall be a lien on the real estate to which the said water or lights were furnished, * * * for all sums that have accrued during the preceding year and not paid as herein provided, and all proceedings in relation to the collection, return and sale of property for delinquent taxes shall apply to said tax.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 240.

AN ACT to amend section 113.19 of the statutes, relating to the compensation of court reporters.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 113.19 of the statutes is amended to read: 113.19 (1) Every reporter appointed pursuant to section 113.18 shall be compensated for his services at the rate of two hundred dollars per month, payable out of the state treasury. Every reporter so appointed in a circuit divided into two or more branches shall be further compensated for his services at the rate of fifty dollars per month, payable out of the treasury of the county embracing such circuit. Every reporter attending a term of court, or attending by direction of the court the trial of a compulsory reference, outside of the county in which he resides shall be reimbursed out of the state treasury his necessary traveling expenses and hotel bills. Assistant reporters shall be paid nothing out of any public treasury except for services performed in a county forming a part only of a circuit when two judges are holding court therein at the same
