CHAPTER 341.

AN ACT to amend section 894a of the statutes, relating to the borrowing of money for the general fund of villages in anticipation of a tax levy.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 894a of the statutes is amended to read: Section 894a. No village or any officer thereof shall have power to issue any time or negotiable order, or borrow money, except in the manner and for the purposes expressly declared by statute; provided, however, that the village board may authorize money to be borrowed for the general fund of the village, after a tax for the same has been duly levied, in anticipation of such tax levy.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 342.

AN ACT to create subsection (33) of section 893 of the statutes, relating to the power of village boards to borrow money for temporary purposes after the electors have voted to bond the municipality or borrow money from the state trust funds prior to the time such money is actually available.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to section 893 of the statutes, a new subsection to read: (Section 893.) (33) Whenever the electors of any village shall have duly voted to bond the village for any municipal improvement, or to borrow money from the state trust funds, and money is needed for the purpose approved by the electors temporarily, and before the money so to be derived from a sale of bonds or from the state trust funds is
