CHAPTER 355.

AN ACT to amend section 1762 of the statutes, relating to corporations.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1762 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1762. When not otherwise specially provided by law or by the by-laws of any corporation the directors or trustees thereof shall call and order the elections of the officers of such corporation annually; and if they refuse so to do or if from any other cause it shall happen that an election of directors or trustees shall not take place at the annual meeting such corporation shall not be deemed dissolved thereby, but the former officers shall continue to act as such until their successors shall have been elected and qualified, and a special election may be called by the proper officers of such corporation for electing such officer by giving such notice as is required for the annual election; but if such officers shall refuse or neglect to call such special election for ten days after the time fixed for the annual election or if there be no officers authorized to call such special election then any two or more members of such corporation may call a special meeting for the election of officers in the manner prescribed in section 1773, or whenever it shall be made to appear to the circuit court, by the verified petition or affidavit of a stockholder of any corporation organized under the laws of this state, that such corporation for the period of one year or more has failed or neglected to elect all or any of the members of its board of directors, such court shall, after written notice of such application to be served at least ten days before the hearing thereof upon stockholders residing in the state of Wisconsin in the manner provided by law for the service of summons in said circuit court, or to be served upon nonresident stockholders by publication once a week for at least two successive weeks in some newspaper to be designated by the court, published at or nearest to the place of location of such corporation and by mailing at least ten days before such hearing in the manner provided in section 2821 of the statutes, by order require such corporation and its stockholders to elect such directors within twenty days after the entry of such order, proceedings in said court to stand suspended in the meantime, whereupon and upon due proof of noncompliance with such order such court shall report the matter to the governor who shall appoint, from among the stockholders of such company, suitable and qualified successors for such of said directors for whom no successor shall have previously been elected by said company, such appointees to hold office and discharge their duties as such directors until their successors are duly chosen by said corporation. When the day fixed for the annual election of officers or other meeting of a corporation shall fall on Sunday or on a legal holiday such election or meeting shall be held on the next succeeding secular day.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
