

Wisconsin Session Laws, 1917:

No. 10, S.]

[Published January 29, 1917.]

CHAPTER 1

AN ACT relating to expert and clerical assistants for the joint committee on finance, and making an appropriation therefor.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The joint committee on finance and the legislature of the session of 1917 is empowered to employ trained experts in accounting and statistics and in the formulation of public financial statements and such other assistants as may be necessary. Such experts and assistants shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 363 of the laws of 1905, and its amendments.

SECTION 2. There is appropriated out of the general fund for the legislative session of 1917 a sum, sufficient to carry out the provisions of this act, not to exceed thirty-five hundred dollars, the same to be paid upon the approval and order of the chairman of the senate and assembly divisions of the joint committee on finance.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved January 26, 1917.

No. 9, S.]
