

[No. 27, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 33.

Relating to the regulation of the fishing industry on the great lakes.

WHEREAS, The rapidly increasing use of fish for food makes it highly desirable that the fishing industry should be properly and adequately regulated, and

WHEREAS, It seems impossible to reach a uniformity of state laws of the different states bordering upon the great lakes in regard to this subject, now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the legislature of the state of Wisconsin does hereby respectfully petition the congress of the United States to enact such legislation as shall give to the national government the sole jurisdiction in the regulation of the fishing industry upon the great lakes.

That copies of this resolution, duly attested by the signatures of the presiding officers and chief clerks of the two houses, shall be transmitted to the president of the senate, to the speaker of the house of representatives, and to each of the senators and representatives in congress from the state of Wisconsin.

No. 36, S.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 34.

WHEREAS, Our country is now engaged in war with the imperial German government, and

WHEREAS, The President of the United States is the constitutional commander of our army and navy and must therefore assume the responsibilities and cares of leadership in the great conflict in which we are now engaged, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That we hereby tender to the President of the United States every support that it is within the power of the Legislature of the state of Wisconsin to give, to aid him in the organization and equipment of our army and navy, to provide food for our people and to supply our allies in Europe, and to do all things that will aid him in carrying out his obligations to the people, be it

Further resolved, That we give him the assurance of the loyal support of the government of the state of Wisconsin and its citizens, and that we will bear with him the hardships of the war, as we will rejoice with him over the success of our army and navy, be it