CHAPTER 292.

AN ACT to amend section 2266 of the statutes, relating to vacating plats.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate, and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2266 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 2266. Upon producing satisfactory evidence to the court that such notices have been given and served, such court shall proceed to hear all parties interested therein and determine such petition, and may in its discretion vacate such plat or any part thereof and enter judgment accordingly; and when it shall appear that such plat has been recorded for more than forty years preceding the filing of the application for vacation and that the streets within that part of the plat sought to be vacated have during all of said period remained in their natural conditions and have not been improved as streets and that such streets are not necessary as a means of reaching other platted property, and that all of the owners of all of the land within the part of the plat so sought to be vacated have joined in the petition, the court shall vacate such plat or part thereof and enter judgment accordingly. The judgment so made, together with the plat, if only a part of * * * the plat * * * may have been vacated. showing the part thereof so vacated, shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
