CHAPTER 296.

AN ACT to repeal section 764 and to create a new section to be numbered section 764 of the statutes, relating to fees of registers of deeds.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 764 of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 2. A new section is added to the statutes to read: section 764. Except as otherwise provided by law every register of deeds shall receive the following fees, to wit:

(1) For entering and recording any deed or other instrument, ten cents for each folio, and three cents for every necessary entry thereof in the tract index, when kept; but not less than forty-five cents for any release, fifty cents for any assignment, sixty cents for any deed and seventy-five cents for any mortgage.

(2) For recording any instrument written in any other than the English language, twenty cents for each folio.

(3) For filing and entering any writ of attachment or copy thereof, with the certificates of the officer, or any certificate of sale, or any notice of the pendency of any action containing not more than twenty defendants, twenty-five cents, and twenty-five cents for every additional twenty defendants in any such notice.

(4) For copies of any records or papers, ten cents for each folio, and twenty-five cents for his certificate.

(5) For every entry of a discharge of a mortgage in the margin of a record, ten cents.

(6) For filing every other paper and making an entry thereof when necessary, twenty-five cents.

(7) For a certified copy of the full record of any marriage, birth or death, fifty cents.

(8) For examining the proofs of marriage, birth or death, when presented in the form of affidavits, fifty cents.

(9) For registering any marriage, birth or death, twenty-five cents, to be paid by the county in cases where the certificates or proof of such marriage, birth or death is presented for registration within one year after its occurrence; but otherwise to be paid by the party procuring the registration.

(10) For making a new tract index upon the order of the county board, such sum as may be fixed by the county board, not exceeding two cents for each entry, to be paid from the county treasury.

(11) Whenever all the fees together of the register are less than five hundred dollars per annum, the county board may, in its discretion, pay him a sum of money which, with the fees received by him, will amount to not to exceed seven hundred dollars per annum.

(12) For recording plats containing from one to twenty lots, thirteen dollars, and for plats containing from twenty to fifty lots, fifteen dollars, and of each additional lot, ten cents.

(13) For exhibits, attached to any instrument, the size of a typewritten page, five dollars, and for those exceeding a typewritten page, ten dollars.

All foregoing fees to be payable in advance by the party procuring such service.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 5, 1919.
