CHAPTER 407.

AN ACT to amend subdivision (7) of section 776 of the statutes, relating to the power of town meetings to authorize the issuance of bonds by the town board.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subdivision (7) of section 776 of the statutes is amended to read: (Section 776) (7) To authorize the town board to issue and negotiate bonds of the town, not exceeding five thousand dollars in the aggregate, for the purpose of defraying the expenses of building any bridge over any stream in such town, when the cost thereof shall exceed the sum of two thousand dollars; to authorize the town board to issue and negotiate bonds of the town, not exceeding ten thousand dollars in the aggregate for the purpose of defraying the expenses of building roads; provided that in any town in any county containing a city of the first or second class the town board may be authorized to issue and negotiate bonds of the town for the purpose of defraying the expenses of building roads subject to constitutional limitations as to the amount thereof. Such bonds may be made payable at different times, not, however, to exceed ten years from the date thereof, with interest. The powers conferred by subdivisions (5) and (7) shall not be exercised at any such town meeting unless the town board shall have given notice of their intention to present the proposition to such meeting as is required in case of special town meetings, nor unless a resolution or order to be voted upon containing the particulars required by section 777 shall be first publicly read to such meeting before the vote shall be taken, nor in case of this subdivision unless seventy-five per cent of the electors present at such meeting shall have voted in favor of such resolution or order.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
