CHAPTER 587.

AN ACT to amend subsection (2) of section 20.60 and subsection 3 of section 1492b, of the statutes, relating to the Wisconsin department of agriculture and indemnities for slaughtered animals, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (2) of section 20.60 of the statutes is amended to read: (20.60) (2) * * * *On July 1, 1919, not to exceed two hundred thousand dollars, and on July 1, 1920, not to exceed two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars, for payment of indemnities to the owners of diseased animals condemned and slaughtered by order of the live stock sanitary board, subject to the conditions prescribed in sections 1492b and 1492j, as follows: For each animal condemned and ordered slaughtered, * * * the department of agriculture may on behalf of the state authorize the payment to the owner of a sum equal to the amount received for the salvage of the animal after the freight and cost of handling is deducted, plus one-fourth of the difference between the net amount of salvage and the amount at which the animal is appraised. In no case shall the payment made additional to the net salvage exceed twenty dollars for grade animals and forty-five dollars for pure bred animals. For animals reacting to the test and not coming under the joint co-operative agreement, the owner shall receive from the state a sum equal to the amount received for the carcass or live weight plus one-half the difference between the net amount of salvage and the amount at which the animal is appraised. When in the opinion of the state veterinarian, an animal is of sufficient value*
