CHAPTER 604.

AN ACT to submit to the people an amendment to the constitution.

WHEREAS, At the biennial session of the legislature of Wisconsin in the year 1917, an amendment to the constitution was proposed by joint resolution No. 74, A. and agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses, which proposed amendment was in the following language:

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That section 6, article VII, and section 7, article VII, of the constitution, be amended to read: (Article VII) Section 6. The legislature may alter the limits, decrease or increase the number of circuits, making them as compact and convenient as practicable, and bounding them by county lines; but no such alteration, decrease or increase shall have the effect to remove a judge from office. In case of an increase of circuits, the judge or judges shall be elected as provided in this constitution and receive a salary not less than that herein provided for judges of the circuit court.

SECTION 7. For each circuit there shall be chosen by the qualified electors thereof one or more circuit judges, * * * as the legislature may, from time to time, authorize. * * * Every circuit judge shall reside in the circuit from which he is elected, and shall hold his office for such term and receive such compensation as the legislature shall prescribe;” and

WHEREAS, The foregoing proposed amendment to the constitution of Wisconsin has been ratified and agreed to by the legislature thereof by joint resolution No. — S. at the biennial session of 1919 by a majority of all the members elected to each house thereof; therefore

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The foregoing proposed amendment to the constitution of this state shall be submitted to the people at an election to be held in the several election districts in this state on the first Tuesday in April, 1920, in the manner provided by law for the submission of amendments to the constitution at a general election, and if the people shall approve and ratify said amendment by a majority of the electors voting thereon such amendment so ratified shall become a part of the constitution of this state.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 605.

AN ACT to create section 1636—30 and subsection (12) of section 20.43 of the statutes, relating to the regulation of beauty parlor shops, providing penalties and making an appropriation.

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes and a new subsection is added to section 20.43 of the statutes to read: Section 1636—30. 1. No person shall act as manager of or as an operator or apprentice in any beauty parlor shop without first having obtained a license so to do as provided in this section.

2. The state board of health shall on or before August 1, 1919, appoint, and shall have power to remove, three competent persons to be known as the committee of examiners who shall conduct the examinations required under the provisions of this section. No person shall be appointed such examiner unless he shall have had at least five years' experience as a manager of a beauty parlor shop. All such examiners shall be exempt from the provisions of sections 16.01 to 16.30 of the statutes.

3. The state board of health shall appoint and provide for the payment of one woman inspector who shall devote her whole time
