

[Jt. Res. No. 124, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 85.

Urging the congress of the United States to enact legislation providing adequate compensation for soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the war against Germany, Austria and their allies.

WHEREAS, Most of our soldiers, sailors and marines in the war against Germany, Austria and their allies sacrificed at a considerable financial loss, established business connections and positions in agricultural, industrial and other enterprises to serve their country; and

WHEREAS, There is in this state and other states a desire and a strong purpose to fulfill the moral obligation, which they recognize, to compensate in a measure at least, their soldiers, sailors and marines because of loss so sustained and sacrifices so made; and

WHEREAS, Despite this strong desire and purpose, this state and other states because of constitutional inhibitions have found it difficult, if not wholly impossible, to enact the necessary legislation to carry out their desires and purposes in this important matter; therefore be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That this legislature respectfully memorialize and urge the congress of the United States to enact such legislation as may be necessary to adequately compensate soldiers, sailors and marines for financial losses sustained and financial sacrifices made by them during the period of their valiant and heroic service to their country; be it further

Resolved, That a suitable copy of this resolution properly attested be transmitted to the president of the United States, the presiding officer of each house of the congress and to each United States senator and representative in congress from this state.

[Jt. Res. No. 130, A.]

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 86.

WHEREAS, The state is incurring considerable expense on account of its care and treatment of feeble-minded and epileptic; and

WHEREAS, There are thousands of people afflicted in this way to whom the state has not given any aid at all and over whom the state has not assumed control in any way; and

WHEREAS, The state is not in possession of sufficiently definite information as to the needs of the future; and