CHAPTER 358.

AN ACT to amend sections 2, 4 and 6 of chapter 152, private and local laws of 1869, entitled "An act to incorporate the Saint John's Home of Milwaukee" and section 3 of said chapter 152, as amended by chapter 358, laws of 1919.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 2, 4 and 6 of chapter 152, of the private and local laws of 1869, are amended to read: (Chapter 152, private and local laws of 1869.) Section 2. The object of said corporation shall be the establishment and maintenance in the * * * diocese of Milwaukee of an institution for the care and relief of sick, aged and infirm persons, and as a temporary refuge for homeless persons, and such other charitable purposes as said corporation may from time to time undertake to carry into execution.

Section 4. Said board of directors shall have the general control and management of the business and affairs of said corporation. They shall elect from their own number annually, a president and vice-president, and from among the members of said corporations, a secretary and a treasurer, to perform the duties usually devolving upon such officers, and such special duties as shall be imposed upon them by the by-laws of said corporation. Said board of directors shall fix the terms of annual membership and life membership in said corporation; provided, that all annual members of said corporation shall be members of some Protestant Episcopal congregation in the * * * diocese of Milwaukee, and shall pay into the treasury of said corporation at least one dollar per annum. Said board of directors shall provide from time to time suitable by-laws, rules and regulations for the management of the business and affairs of said corporation. They may annually appoint an executive committee of members of said corporation, of either or both sexes, and may prescribe their duties and receive and act upon their reports and recommendations. They may also appoint such other committees for special objects connected with the affairs of said corporation, from among the members thereof, as they shall from time to time deem best.

Section 6. If any member of the board of directors shall cease to be an inhabitant of the * * * diocese of Milwaukee, or an attendant upon the stated worship of the Protestant Episcopal church, his office shall become vacant and shall be filled for the residue of his term at the next election of directors. All officers of said corporation may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the directors, and their places filled by a majority of the directors.

SECTION 2. Section 3 of chapter 152, private and local laws of 1869, as amended by chapter 358, laws of 1919 is amended to read: (Chapter 152, laws of 1869.) Section 3. The corporators named in the first section of this act shall constitute the first board of directors of said corporation, and shall hold their offices until the 30th day of March, A. D., 1869, when a new board of twelve directors shall be elected; three of them to hold their offices for one year, three of them for two years, three of them for three years and three of them for four years, and annually thereafter on * * * the first Tuesday in February, three directors shall be elected for four years, and all vacancies which may have occurred in the board of directors shall be filled by the votes of the members of said corporation, including life members, each member having one vote. No person shall be eligible to be elected a director who is not a male member of said corporation, and a member of or regular attendant at some one of the Protestant Episcopal churches of the * * * diocese of Milwaukee, and a layman. * * * The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church in the diocese of Milwaukee shall be ex officio a member of the board of directors of said corporation.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
