

means of an ornamental system when the common council of any such city or the village board of any such village may determine, on its own initiative, and without the petition of abutting lot owners, to contract for the erection and maintenance of such ornamental lighting system and the furnishing of electric current therefor. In all such cases, the council or village board, as the case may be, shall determine whether the entire cost of installation, maintenance and lighting shall be borne by the city or village or whether the cost of installation shall be borne by the abutting property owners and the cost of maintenance and lighting shall be borne by the city or village. The words "ornamental lighting system" as used herein shall mean lights of a uniform character supported by fixtures that are uniform and of such design as shall be adopted by the common council or village board, as the case may be, and installed at regular intervals not to exceed one hundred and twenty-five feet apart on both sides of any street or extending over the same forming an arch calculated to be of greater benefit to the abutting property than the street lights suspended at street intersections in the method commonly used for general street lighting; provided that in cities of the third and fourth classes said fixtures may be installed at intervals as regular as is reasonably practical at distances not to exceed two hundred feet measured along the center of the street, and may be placed in pairs on each side of street or placed alternately on opposite sides of street or in boulevard in center of street or in arches over the street.

CHAPTER 565.

AN ACT to amend subsection (1) of section 29.13 of the statutes, relating to trapping licenses.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (1) of section 29.13 of the statutes is amended to read: (29.13) (1) Trapping licenses, which shall authorize the use of traps for trapping fishers, martens, minks, muskrats, raccoons, and skunks, shall be issued by the state conservation commission, subject to the provisions of section 29.09, to persons duly applying therefor who have resided in this state for at least one year next preceding the application. The fee for each such license is * * * two and one-half dollars. If a trapper employs any person in trapping, a license shall be required for each such person so employed. Any person under the age of sixteen years may secure from the county clerk of the county wherein he resides or from the conservation commission a boy's trapping permit which shall authorize the use of traps for the purposes herein named, upon payment of a fee of twenty-five cents. The holders of such permits shall also be subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3).

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
