CHAPTER 102.

AN ACT to create section 61.68 of the statutes, relating to the laying out of highways in villages.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 61.68 All of the provisions of chapter 80 of the statutes with reference to the laying out, altering and discontinuing of highways are hereby made applicable to villages. The application for the laying out of highways shall be made to the village board of trustees, and in any instance where the words "town board" or the word "supervisors" are used in said chapter 80 of the statutes, such words shall be construed to mean "village board" or "village board of trustees," to the end that streets and highways may be laid out in villages in the same manner, with the same procedure, and with like effect as such highways are laid out in towns.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
