CHAPTER 273.

AN ACT to amend subsection (2) of section 48.33 of the statutes, relating to mothers' pensions.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (2) of section 48.33 of the statutes is amended to read: (48.33) (2) The said judge * * * shall cause * * * an investigation and examination to be made before the granting of aid for such child. * * * To assist in making investigations and examinations, the judge may appoint a board of child welfare for his county to consist of three members, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the judge making the appointment; or in the event that the judge shall fail to appoint such a board the county board may appoint a committee of three of its members to make such investigations. No salary or wages shall be paid to the members of said committee, but they shall be reimbursed their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, such expenses to be approved by the appointing judge, and to be audited and paid by the county as other claims against such county are audited and paid. Such board shall advise and consult with the judge regarding the best method of investigating cases under the provisions of this section; establish a basis of household expenses to compute the amount of aid to be extended to needy families; help needy mothers to expend aid granted economically, and advise them how to keep accounts of expenses; recommend discontinuance and reductions in aid and generally to act, consult and confer with each other and the court relative to any and all problems relating to families to be aided and as to the best methods of carrying out the provisions of this section economically and efficiently.
