CHAPTER 129.

AN ACT to repeal section 20.126, chapter 165 and subsection (6) of section 363.02 of the statutes and to create subsection (9) of section 66.05 and sections 351.59 to 351.63, abolishing the office of the state prohibition commissioner and all permits required by law to be issued by such office and repealing the appropriation therefor, and giving towns, villages and cities power to license and regulate the sale of nonintoxicating liquors, and providing penalties.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20.126, chapter 165 and subsection (6) of section 363.02 of the statutes, are repealed and the office of the state prohibition commissioner is abolished.

SECTION 2. A new subsection is added to section 66.05 and five new sections are added to the statutes to read: (66.05) (9) (a) Each town board, village board and common council shall grant licenses to such persons as they deem proper for the sale of nonintoxicating liquors to be consumed on the premises where sold and to manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers and distributors of nonintoxicating liquors, for which a license fee of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars, to be fixed by the board or council, shall be paid, except that where nonintoxicating liquors are sold, not to be consumed on the premises, the license fee shall be five dollars. Such license shall be issued by the town, village or city clerk, shall designate the specific premises for which granted and shall expire the thirtieth day of June thereafter. The full license fee shall be charged for the whole or a fraction of the year. No such liquor shall be manufactured, sold at wholesale or retail or sold for consumption on the premises, or kept for sale at wholesale or retail, or for consumption on the premises where sold without such license.
