CHAPTER 193.

AN ACT to amend section 157.06 of the statutes, relating to the location of cemeteries.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 157.06 of the statutes is amended to read :
157.06 No cemetery shall be laid out or used for burial purposes, except such as are now in use, (1) within recorded plat of a city or village, or recorded addition thereto, and within a mile of a building in any such plat, (2) outside such a plat and within two hundred rods of an inhabited dwelling in such a plat, without the consent of the municipal authorities, (3) within fifteen rods of a habitable dwelling, public building, watering place, or schoolhouse, but this clause shall not apply to the use for cemetery purposes of lands already owned for an extension to an existing cemetery and included within the same description, nor (4) within two hundred rods of the institutions for the deaf and dumb, for the blind, the hospitals for the insane, the industrial school for boys, the colonies for the feeble-minded, the state public school, or the state reformatory, without the consent of the state board of control; except that (1) an existing cemetery in a village may be extended toward or beyond either of the two nearest village limits with the consent of the village board and the owners of any building within fifteen rods of the addition; (2) an existing cemetery in a city of the third or fourth class may be extended and enlarged with the consent of the state board of health and of the council; provided, that damages may also be allowed to owners of land adjoining that taken for cemetery purposes; (3) an incorporated college of a religious order in a city of the fourth class may, with the consent of the council, establish a private cemetery on land owned by the college for the interment of members of the order in such city, but not within fifty rods of a private dwelling or building without the consent of the owner; (4) a cemetery established within an incorporated village before April 30, 1887, within one hundred feet of the outer lines of the plat of such village, may be extended to the outer boundary of such plat with the consent of the village board, and (5) a cemetery established before said date may be enlarged subject only to the conditions of section 157.05. Violation of this section creates a nuisance which may be enjoined at the suit of anyone.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 17, 1929.

CHAPTER 194.

AN ACT to amend subsection (5) of section 20.11 and section 35.24 of the statutes, relating to the blue book.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (5) of section 20.11 and section 35.24 of the statutes are amended to read: (20.11) (5) Annually, beginning July 1, 1921, such sums as may be necessary for * * * printing and distributing the Wisconsin blue book * * * .

35.24 It is the duty of the * * * legislative reference library to compile, * * * index, prepare and deliver to the printing board biennially * * * copy for a book to be denominated "Wisconsin Blue Book," which shall contain lists of senators and assemblymen and employes of each house, and statistical and other information of the same general character as that heretofore published in the blue book of Wisconsin, but so selected and condensed as will limit the number of pages approximately to eight hundred or less. In making such selection of matter the * * * legislative reference library is directed to consult freely with the state superintendent and the superintendent of the state historical society, and in so far as possible, make the blue book useful for civics classes in schools. The board shall deliver said printer's copy to the state printer not later than the thirtieth day of January in each odd-numbered year, together with a proper order for the printing of an edition thereof, to be printed and delivered not later than the fifteenth day of July of the same year.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 19, 1929.
