CHAPTER 337.

AN ACT to amend section 221.14 of the statutes, relating to investment of state banks in bank buildings.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 221.14 of the statutes is amended to read: 221.14 A bank may purchase, hold and convey real estate for the following purposes only:

First. Such as shall be necessary for the convenient transaction of its business, including with its banking offices other apartments to rent as source of income. No bank shall invest in a banking office, including apartments connected therewith, together with furniture and fixtures, or become liable thereon in a sum exceeding fifty per cent of its capital and surplus; provided, that in lieu thereof it may invest, with the approval of the commissioner of banking, not to exceed thirty-five per cent of its capital and surplus in the stocks, bonds or obligations of a bank building corporation. Any bank not owning its banking offices shall not hereafter invest in furniture and fixtures a sum exceeding fifteen per cent of its capital and surplus.

Second. Such as shall be conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its business.

Third. Such as it shall purchase at sale on judgments, decrees or mortgage foreclosures under securities held by it, but a bank shall not bid at such sale a larger amount than is necessary to satisfy its debts and costs.

Fourth. No real estate acquired in the cases contemplated in the second and third subdivisions preceding, shall be held for a longer time than five years, except an extension is granted by the commissioner of banking. If such extension be not granted, it must be sold at a private or public sale within one year thereafter. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a bank from loaning moneys upon real estate security as provided by law. Real estate shall be conveyed under the corporate seal of the bank, and the hand of the president or vice president and cashier or assistant cashier.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved July 30, 1929.
